Responding to Bullying Behaviors

	Scenario	What type of bullying is this?  (verbal, social or physical)	How would you respond?
A	For the last week, you have noticed that Hannah asks to play with Carmen and Alicia outside on the playground, but they tell her she can't be their friend. As Hannah walks away, you see Carmen and Alicia whispering and giggling to each other.
B	Rodney and James are playing outside. When Rodney is on the swings, James walks behind and pushes Rodney so hard he falls off the swing. When Rodney moves to the slide, James follows him and kicks Rodney when he comes off the slide.
C	Over the past few weeks, the older children in your care have given each other nicknames. Diego's nickname is Turtle. At first, you thought it was harmless, but now you realize that the children call him that when does anything slower than they do.

D	Every day, Elena wants to play with Jose and Grace. Sometimes they tell Elena to go away. Other times they tell her she can play, but they are the mom and dad and she is the baby. Babies do not talk and Elena has to follow all their directions.
E	The last few days Robert races Jack to the table and sits down first. When Jack gets to the table, Robert moves Jack's chair out from under him as he sits down, causing Jack to fall on the floor.
F	Samiira and Brooke are often in line together to wash their hands. Samiira tells Brooke she needs to wash her hands after Samiira or else she will kick her.
