Trainer and RBPB Specialist Updates

Updated Trainer Agreement Form

In September, DHS announced Upcoming Changes for the DHS Early Childhood and School-Age Care Professional Development System.

As a result of these changes, you must sign the newly updated Trainer Agreement Form and return it to support@mncpd.org by November 20, 2021, to maintain your approved trainer membership status in Develop.

Instructor: Hope Doerner

The Positive Indian Parenting or PIP is now the Native American Parenting Program (NAPP). The revised trainer's manual, annex, and practitioner guide are complete and new Develop course numbers will be available after December 31, 2021. There will be a TOT of the NAPP curriculum in the spring of 2022 for previous trainers of PIP.

The next round of Family, Friend, and Neighbor (FFN) Kits will be dispersed this winter. They will include materials related to health and safety, school readiness, literacy, culture, and technology. Please share our information with any FFN providers who are caring for Native American children and are not licensed to connect them with our resources!
